PLAVAC MALI

Vinogorje Pelješac

2019 PLAVAC MALI • DRY RED WINE • PELJEŠAC PENINSULA

Legendary Napa Valley winemaker Miljenko "Mike" Grgich established Grgić Vina in 1995 on the Adriatic coast of his homeland, Croatia. Mike helped discover that the roots of Zinfandel were the Croatian native Crljenak, which is also the parent of Plavac Mali. Grgić Vina focuses on producing the finest wines from Croatia's very best varietals: Plavac Mali and Pošip.

Our Plavac Mali is a hearty, robust wine with concentrated aromas of plum and black cherry with earthy notes on the palate. Traditionally served with roasted lamb, its bold flavors are also perfect with grilled steak, rich pasta dishes and aged cheeses.
